

OCTOBER 30, 2020

Our Time Wind Quintet

News & Upcoming Events

This time, right now, with you is Our Time

This is the official newsletter of Our Time Wind Quintet. We are a chamber ensemble dedicated to sharing our musical passion through performance, educational engagement, and community partnerships. In this issue, read about us and our upcoming livestream program, Collaboration in Isolation.

About Us

Get to know us! Visit www.ourtimequintet.com to learn more about our members:

Edna Jeon, flute
Jordan Pyle, oboe
Dan Mills, clarinet
Taryn Lee, horn
Keegan Hockett, bassoon

Upcoming Event

Join us next Friday, November 6, 2020 at 4pm PST/7 pm EST for a livestream event. We will be exploring the concept of collaborating with others while isolated through music and spoken word with writer Patricia McCrystal. Visit our website for more information.

Collaboration in Isolation

HOSTED BY THE LITERARY MUSIC SERIES

We are excited to present our program Collaboration in Isolation at Literary Music Series! This program intertwines music, spoken word, and visual art to weave an integrative narrative. It features works by Ligeti, Nielsen, and Coleman recorded by none other than Our Time Wind Quintet, and will debut our very first music video!

The program explores themes around collaborating while distanced. Our Time faced this challenge, playing together from four different states! We used several modes of video chatting, recording programs, and a plethora of group texts to design this program together. In Collaboration in Isolation, we hope to share our own transformations in rehearsing, collaborating, and sharing our passion during the COVID-19 era. Joining our program is award-winning fiction writer Patricia McCrystal, who created an original composition written in response to the third and fourth movements of the Nielsen Quintet.

Patricia McCrystal
DENVER-BASED
WRITER AND POET

OCTOBER 2020

FOLLOW US
@OURTIME.QUINTET

Collaboration in Isolation will stream live to Facebook and YouTube on November 6, 2020 at 4 pm PST/7pm EST. Links to watch will be available on the day of the event. Please join us in a post-performance Zoom salon after the program to speak with all the artists!